Jane Wells

The Jubilee coffee morning is in St Mary's Church on SATURDAY 2nd JUNE from 10.30am to 12.00noon. Please come along for coffee and biscuits, before heading off to the picnic lunch - bring the children, we have toys they can play with allowing you to relax and chat over a coffee. Everyone is welcome.

There will be several stalls, a raffle, bring-and-buy, home-made cakes and books (you're sure to find your holiday reading from our varied selection!).

JUBILEE SONGS OF PRAISE

Reverend Thomas Sander

On Sunday the 3rd June at 5.00pm, St Mary's Church Felmersham will join in the national celebrations for Her Majesty's Jubilee in holding a special Church service to mark the occasion.

As a village I warmly invite you to come and give thanks to Almighty God for the peace, security and freedom which we have enjoyed under the reign of Elizabeth II and to pray that her reign will continue to be one of stability and hope for the future.

The service will include patriotic hymns, including Jerusalem and I vow to thee my country; it is expected to last around 40 minutes and will be preceded by a peal of bells.

After the service 'Jubilee Punch' will be served, with which we will make the loyal toast and drink to Her Majesty's health

All are very welcome to come to this service, please feel free to dress up for the occasion. Ladies, the wearing of hats and fascinators are very welcome! Hope to see you there - 5.00pm on Sunday 3rd June.

CHERRIE AND VICTORIA ON THE MOON WALK

Many congratulations to Cherrie Dawson and her daughter-in-law, Victoria (who came over from Norway to take part in this event), who both recently took part in the London "Moon Walk" in aid of the Breast Cancer charity. There were over 7,000 ladies on the walk which started at 10.30pm on Saturday 12th May.

Cherrie and Victoria completed the 26.2 miles course in 6hrs 19mins. Well done, you two, your smiles say it all.

(PS: Cherrie didn't get to bed at all on the Sunday and at 4.00pm she turned up to take part in the Rogation Sunday walk to Sharnbrook at 4.00pm – and she did it!)

QUOTES ABOUT THE WEATHEREditor

Summer has set in with its usual severity. S T Coleridge
Everybody talks about the weather, but nobody does anything about it. Charles Warner
There's no such thing as bad weather, only unsuitable clothing. Alfred Wainwright
Some people walk in the rain, others just get wet. Roger Miller
What dreadful hot weather we have! It keeps me in a continual state of inelegance. Jane Austen
A bank is a place where they lend you an umbrella and ask for it back when it starts to rain. Unknown
Don't knock the weather, most people couldn't start a conversation if it didn't change once in a while. Kin Hubbard

DID YOU KNOW.....?

VACCINATION (1796) – As Edward Jenner (1749-1823) was growing up in England, smallpox had once again become prevalent and was ravaging London and the countryside. Jenner became a doctor, in Gloucestershire, where he became interested in the link between cowpox and smallpox. Milkmaids who contracted the non-deadly cowpox seemed immune to smallpox, and Jenner, intrigued by this, began to investigate the link.

In May 1796, milkmaid Sarah Nelmes contracted cowpox from her cow, and pus-filled blisters covered her hands and arms. She visited Dr Jenner. Realizing his opportunity to test the protective properties of cowpox on someone who had not contracted smallpox, Jenner took some pus from Sarah and applied it to scratches made on the arm of a young boy, James Phipps. Some days later Phipps came down with a mild form of cowpox, proving that the disease was transferable between people. Jenner then injected Phipps with smallpox, and although the boy became ill, he recovered quickly and completely.

Many more experiments confirmed the results, and in 1798 Jenner published his findings. At first there was reluctance amongst the medical industry to use his methods, but the results were too conclusive to ignore. In 1853 an Act of Parliament made vaccination with cowpox compulsory, and the numbers of people dying from smallpox dropped dramatically.

ANOTHER BOOK GROUP IN FELMERSHAM?Teresa Miller

I understand that there could be some interest in starting another book group. The two existing very successful groups have been going for many years and, like so many other groups, prefers to limit their number of members. Maybe there could be an opportunity to start another group - say with a maximum of twelve (12) people? I am an avid reader who would welcome the opportunity to discuss books with others.

If you have similar thoughts and can commit to reading a book a month, please call me (781497) to discuss if another group could work!
