Continuing A Theme

Last month I wrote about this year's Bishop's appeal 'Harvest for the Hungry' which will be supporting the work of UBINIG in helping poor families in rural Bangladesh. Shortly a motion is being presented to the Diocesan Synod that this Diocese should become a 'Fairtrade' Diocese. As the world has seemed to become smaller, and it has become possible to transport food and commodities economically over large distances, so markets have become increasingly globalised. This is a great advantage for the consumer who is able to source food and commodities from all over the world, and is able to by from the cheapest sources, where the climate may be more favourable and the wage costs low. But when commodity prices fall dramatically it has a catastrophic impact on the lives of millions of small scale producers, forcing many into crippling debt and countless others to lose their land and their homes. Too many farmers in the developing world have to contend with fluctuating prices that may not even cover what it costs to produce their crop.

Fairtrade is about better prices, decent working conditions, local sustainability, and fair terms of trade for farmers and workers in the developing world. By requiring companies to pay above market prices, Fairtrade addresses the injustices of conventional trade, which traditionally discriminates against the poorest, weakest producers. It enables them to improve their lot and have more control over their lives. Development agencies recognised the important role that consumers could play to improve the situation for producers. By buying direct from farmers at better prices, helping to strengthen their organisations and marketing their produce directly through their own one world shops and catalogues, the charities offered consumers the opportunity to buy products which were bought on the basis of a fair trade. Many Parishes sell Fair Trade products, and they are increasingly been seen in the shops and Supermarkets. This development is a part of the most important attempt to make poverty history, and I believe that it should be encouraged at all levels not only to improve the prosperity of deprived parts of the world, but also as a way of promoting peace in this very divided world.

Gerry Sidebottom

Last month I mentioned the Golden Wedding Celebration and Thanksgiving Service that was held for Hazel and Gerry Sidebottom. It was a great occasion, but, although we knew that Gerry was not well, little did we realise how soon he would die. This month his memorial service held in St Pauls Church, and it was good to see so many people from our parish there. Gerry served the Parish well during his incumbency, and it is a tribute to him how many people remember his time here with fond memories and great gratitude. I certainly consider it a privilege to have come to know Gerry and Hazel in the recent years. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family at this time.

Remembrance Sunday is on 13 November this year. We will be holding the usual services in Church at 10.15am, and at the War memorial at about 11.15am. Because the service at the War memorial follows on from the Service in Church it is not possible to be more accurate about the time of this Service.

Save the Children Fund

There will be the annual sale of Christmas cards, wrapping paper and gifts at East Grange, Hunts Lane on Saturday, 22nd October from 10am – 12 noon and 2 – 4 pm and on Sunday 23rd October from 2 – 4 pm. Catalogues have been distributed around the village – if you have been missed and would like one, please ring me on 781789 or pick one up from my front porch.

If you aren't able to come to the sale, you can order through me at any time between now and the end of November and save the cost of postage. Just let me have your order form, a cheque and your phone number and I will contact you as soon as the goods arrive. They normally take about 10 days, though early ordering is advisable.

Pinchmill Lower School

We welcome as Headteacher Mrs Margaret Cooper who we are fortunate to have with us for two terms. She has come to replace Mrs Peck who goes to take up the post of Headteacher at Putnoe Lower School. Those of us who attended her final assemblies know how highly she was regarded by everyone and the affection in which she was held by the pupils and we wish her well for the future. One tangible result of Mrs Peck's hard work was the award of the much coveted, green Eco flag which is now on display in the foyer of the school.

We are very fortunate to have Mrs Cooper with us, as she knows the area well having been the Headteacher of John Gibbard School, Sharnbrook prior to being a School Improvement Officer in Northamptonshire.

The school year has started well with 69 pupils on the roll. We took forward to a busy term and wish our very own official football team the 'Pinchmill Panthers', under their coach Mr James Clayson, an enjoyable and successful season.

Bellringing

The Chilton Widweek Group will be ringing on Wed. November 23rd at 11.30am.

Felmersham & Radwell W. I

Our speaker at the September meeting was Sue Brickay, who entertained us with a resume of her varied career as an actress - from working with Olivier to crumbling Oxo cubes in their adverts. She is now a reporter with Beds on Sunday.

Paula wishes to end her 7 years as Treasurer, and we were asked who would like to take on the post from January next. On 12th October, we shall be hosting the Group Meeting for our area; please remember there will be a Bring & Buy.

"Insurance Claims Investigations" is the topic for our speaker at the Open Meeting on 18th October, when any non-members (male or female) will be most welcome. There will also be a Bring & Buy.

Autumn Show

Regrettably the Autumn Show had to be cancelled this year as there were insufficient entries to make it viable. We were very sorry to have to disappoint the 14 people who had submitted entries, and the 4 who turned up after the decision had been made, but from past experience we needed many more items to make a reasonable display. (Last year at the same time we had received 135 items entered for the show).

Thank you to those who did support the show. Please don't be discouraged. We are not sure why there was so little interest this year, but we will not give up and hope to run it again next year.

Coffee Morning

The Coffee Morning for November, in aid of the Church Organ fund, will be held at the home of Laurie and May Mills on Saturday 5 November 2005 at 10.30 am.

Contributions of home made cakes, toiletries, produce and bric-a-brac for the bring and buy stall will be greatly appreciated. All welcome

Patronal Festival

Many thanks for the items of savoury food and cakes provided by the ladies of the parish for refreshments after the Patronal Festival Service in September.

Church Cleaning Rota

If you have enjoyed being in church recently, maybe for a service, a concert or the flower festival why not think about helping to maintain this beautiful building by joining our cleaning rota. The work is not heavy and the time commitment is approximately 4 hours, 3 times a year.

WHY NOT COME ALONG ON 19th November from 10am for a taster session and meet some of our members. For more information contact Gill Greenish on 782559
